Abstract

The Journal Electronic Physician (ISSN: 2008-5842) is now published by a new publisher “knowledge kingdom publishing” from Algeria.

Keywords: Publisher, Publishing, Journal

Electronic physician, as an international channel of publication, aims to contribute in the scientific progress by a diversity of innovations and findings. From the first start, the journal main strategy was based on fast services with a high quality in open access. By an interdisciplinary editorial, the journal successfully contributed in the main preoccupations of the medicine. The acceptances by the community are justified by the covering of the worldwide glob authors and citations. From 2022, the journal is published by knowledge kingdom publishing from Algeria. With a relevant technical and administrative evolution, our perspective is to move the communities to a new fruitful step by augmenting the scientific contributions and progress.
